FCSO Announces Leadership Promotions Four Members Receive Senior Leader Positions

FREDERICK, Md. (Dec. 8, 2020) – Sheriff Chuck Jenkins is proud to announce the most recent senior leader promotions for the Frederick County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) and the Frederick County Adult Detention Center (ADC).

"This group of new commanders bring a host of individual experiences, knowledge, and skill sets to their new command assignments. They are well prepared to assume the responsibilities within the operations of our Law Enforcement and Corrections Bureaus respectively," said Sheriff Chuck Jenkins. "They have each earned these promotions through performance and commitment to this agency throughout their careers."

"This is a larger than normal number of promotions due to recent retirements but it demonstrates that the Frederick County Sheriff's Office can transition smoothly with very capable replacements when retirements do occur. I have complete confidence that each of these individuals will excel and do a tremendous job because of their dedication."

Jeff Eyler, promoted to the rank of captain, is the new FCSO Patrol Operations commander, an executive level manager responsible for the overall leadership, administrative, and operational management of the largest component of the agency. He will be responsible for more than 125 sworn and civilian agency personnel and units including the patrol shifts, Community Deputy Program, K-9 unit, Traffic unit, Criminal Enforcement Team, Mobile Field Force, Honor Guard, and SWAT. Eyler joined the FCSO in 2002, and so far received nearly 10 awards including the FCSO Outstanding Performance Award in 2014, 2010, and 2005.

David Green, promoted to the rank of lieutenant, is the new ADC Special Operations Unit and Emergency Response Team commander. In this role, he oversees the daily operations of the Transportation Unit, Gang Unit, Central Booking Unit, Intake & Release Unit, Emergency Responds Team and Facility Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Operations. Green joined the FCSO in 1999 and the ADC designated him an Immigration Officer through the 287(g) program.

Sedat Caliskan, promoted to the rank of lieutenant, is the new FCSO Special Operations Unit commander, a first level management position responsible for the leadership and daily coordination of the activities of this unique unit. Caliskan joined the FCSO in 1999 and was a lateral hire from the Fruitland Police Department in Maryland. He is the recipient of nearly 10 awards including the FCSO Outstanding Performance Award in 2008, 2007, and 2002.

Jeremy Holler, promoted to the rank of lieutenant, is a new FCSO Patrol Operations assistant commander, a first level management position directly responsible for the leadership and coordination of the daily activities within patrol operations. He will have oversight of more than 50 law enforcement personnel encompassing three patrol teams and the Civil Order & Firearms Surrender program. Since joining the FCSO in 2004, he is the recipient of more than five awards, including the FCSO Life Saving Award and the FCSO Valor Award in 2009 and 2006.

The Frederick County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) is a full-service law enforcement agency; an arm of the court, and a keeper of offenders. In this regard, it exists to serve the more than 250,000 citizens of Frederick County with respect, fairness, and compassion. FCSO is committed to the prevention of crime; the protection of life and property; the preservation of peace and order; the enforcement of laws and ordinances; the safeguarding of constitutional guarantees; and safekeeping of prisoners. The men, women, and officers of this office nurture public trust by holding themselves to the highest standards of performance and ethics. The FCSO is located at 110 Airport Drive East, Frederick, MD, 21701. Visit www.frederickcosherriff.com for more information.
